Notice to Subscribers

SUBSCRIBERS to THE LOTUS, who have enjoyed its contents, will be conferring a favor upon the publishers by suggesting the names of people likely to be interested in the magazine and to whom sample copies should be sent. THE LOTUS is not on the news-stands; and the best, possibly, the only, method of reaching those for whom it is designed, is through the good offices of its friends.

The subscription to THE LOTUS is ten dollars for five years; thirty-five dollars for life; and one hundred dollars in perpetuity. It is issued by The Authors' Bureau, Babylon, N. Y. G. M. W. Kobbé, President; Gustav Kobbé, Secretary and Treasurer.
